a

1. How should we exercise our pets?
2. What should we do to keep our pets healthy?

2 Read the text. How do vets and forest officers help animals?

Helping Animals

Animals need our help to stay healthy and safe. Some animals live in the wild, while others live in zoos or homes. Each animal needs special care to live well.

Zoo animals need special attention. Elephants need bigger spaces than monkeys to move around. Lions eat a lot of food to stay stronger than other animals. Giraffes need taller trees to reach their food. Vets often check their health.

Wild animals face different challenges. Their homes are getting smaller because of new cities. They need clean water and safe places to live. Forest officers now work harder than before to protect these animals and their homes.

Pets need daily care from their owners. Dogs need exercise. Rabbits eat fresh vegetables, and they are healthier than other animals. Birds need cleaner cages than other animals.

Everyone can help protect animals in simple ways. Small acts of kindness make our world better. When we care for animals, we create a safer place for them. Being kind to animals teaches us to be better people. Together, we can make their lives happier and healthier.

Comparative forms with short adjectives.

Add: -er to the end of the adjective:

Many animals heard about the sick lion. One by one, they went into his cave to visit him. But none of them came out! The lion was catching and eating each visitor.

A wise fox came near the cave. He saw many footprints going in, but none coming out. The fox stood at the cave entrance and said, "Hello, dear lion! How are you feeling?"

"Oh, dear fox!" said the lion. "I am very sick. Please come in and visit me!"

The fox looked at the footprints again and replied, "Thank you, but I can see that many animals went into your cave, but none came out. I learn from the mistakes of others!"

A Research Report

A Research Report: Endangered Animals

1 Think and answer.

Why should we protect animals?

Endangered Animals

Many animals around the world are in danger of disappearing forever. These animals are called endangered species. Here are some important facts about endangered animals.

The Arabian Leopard is one of the most endangered animals in Egypt and the Middle East. Less than 200 of these beautiful cats remain in the wild. One reason is that these animals are in danger because people build houses in their habitats.

The Red Sea Dugong is another endangered animal in Egypt. These gentle sea animals eat sea grass. They are in danger because of pollution and fishing nets.

To help these animals, we need to:

- protect their homes.
- stop pollution.
- create safe areas.
- teach people about them.

If we don't act now, these amazing animals could disappear forever.

Think

What will happen if we don't help these animals?

Superlative adjectives

Use superlative adjectives to show the greatest degree of something.
To make superlative adjectives, we usually add -est to the end:

- tall → the tallest

If an adjective ends in a vowel and a consonant, double the consonant before adding -est to the end:

When an adjective ends in -e, we add -st to the end:

- nice → the nicest

Story Time
"The Last House"

1 Listen and read. What did the village king ask Sami to do?

Sami was a skilled carpenter who lived in a quiet village. For many years, he built strong houses and beautiful furniture. People admired his work, and some traveled from far away just to see his wooden chairs and tables.

After a lifetime of hard work, Sami grew tired. He decided it was time to rest and stop building. But before he could retire, the village king came to him with a request.

"Please build one last house," the king said. "It will be your final gift to the village."

Sami agreed, but his heart was not in it. He used weak wood. He didn't check the windows or the doors. The windows didn't fit. The doors were crooked. The house looked nothing like his usual careful work.

When the house was finished, Sami gave the keys to the king. The king smiled kindly and said, "This house is for you, Sami. It's a gift for all your wonderful work over the years."

Sami stood in shock. His own poor work was now his home. His face turned red with regret. He had built this house carelessly–and now he had to live in it.

From that day on, Sami promised to always give his best, no matter how tired or busy he felt. He slowly repaired the house, board by board, and made it strong and beautiful again.

And with each nail he hammered, Sami remembered who he truly was.

Wanda was absent for several days, but no one noticed. Miss Mason read a letter from Wanda's dad, saying that Wanda's family moved to the big city, where they wouldn't face unkindness.

Peggy and Maddie felt terrible. They realized that when Wanda talked about her hundred dresses, she meant those drawings, her dreams on paper. Maddie said to Peggy, "We need to write to Wanda and apologize."

They wrote her a letter, saying, "Wanda, your drawings are beautiful and amazing. It's very sad that you aren't here to receive your medal. We are sorry for our behavior and hope that you're happy at your new school."
